SECURITY CLEARANCES

What it is and how to obtain clearance

NEW DATE

Thursday, June 23, 2022

1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

Virtual Webinar

Security Clearances can be given to a federal employee, federal contractor, or service member. This CLE will discuss the process of how one is evaluated by an agency if one may have the privilege of being granted a clearance. Even after a security clearance is granted, one may have to undergo continual reviews to determine if the clearance will be granted again. This class will be for a basic understanding of what one can expect to and how an attorney can assist prior to the process, during an investigation, and after an investigation.
